RULE 73.3594 STATEMENT CONCERNING PUBLIC NOTICE

Entercom License, LLC, applicant in the above-captioned proceeding for renewal of the license of FM radio broadcast station KDND, Sacramento, California, by its attorneys and pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 73.3594, hereby states that it: (i) caused the public notice text set forth below ("Public Notice") to be published in the Sacramento Bee, a daily Sacramento, California newspaper, on November 2 and 3, 2016 and on November 9 and 10, 2016 (see the Attachment hereto); and (ii) broadcast the Public Notice over the air on KDND at the following times on the following dates: (1) 7:31 a.m. on November 7, 2016; (2) 8:58 a.m. on November 8, 2016; (3) 9:47 a.m. on November 9, 2016; and (4) 7:08 a.m. on November 10, 2016.

The text of the Public Notice is as follows:

By a Hearing Designation Order and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing released on October 27, 2016, the Federal Communications Commission has designated for hearing license renewal applications filed by Entercom License, LLC seeking renewal of the license of FM radio broadcast station KDND, which operates on the frequency 107.9 MHz.

The applications of this station for a renewal of its license to operate this station in the public interest were tendered for filing with the Federal Communications Commission on July 28, 2005 and July 30, 2013. After considering these applications, the FCC has determined that it is necessary to hold a hearing to decide the following questions:

- (a) To determine whether Entercom designed and conducted a contest that was inherently dangerous;
- (b) To determine whether Entercom increased the danger to the contestants in the “Hold Your Wee for a Wii” contest by changing the contest terms;
- (c) To determine whether Entercom was aware of the potential dangers of the “Hold Your Wee for a Wii” contest and water intoxication;
- (d) To determine whether Entercom failed to protect the contestants of the “Hold Your Wee for a Wii” contest from its potential dangers;
- (e) To determine whether Entercom failed to warn the contestants of the “Hold Your Wee for a Wii” contest of the contest’s potential dangers;
- (f) To determine whether Entercom prioritized entertainment value over the welfare of contestants of the “Hold Your Wee for a Wii” contest;
- (g) To determine whether Entercom failed to properly train and exercise appropriate supervision of Station KDND(FM) staff and the “Hold Your Wee for a Wii” contest to ensure the safety of the contestants;
- (h) To determine, in light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and the totality of circumstances, whether Entercom License, LLC operated Station KDND(FM) in the public interest during the most recent license term; and
- (i) To determine, in light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and the totality of circumstances, whether Entercom’s Applications for Renewal of License for KDND(FM), File Nos. BRH-20130730ANM and BRH-20050728AUU, should be granted.

The hearing will be held at Washington, DC, commencing at a time to be determined on a date to be determined that shall be no later than July 28, 2017.

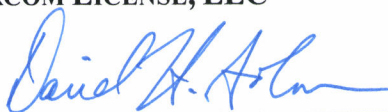

Members of the public who desire to give evidence concerning the foregoing issues should write to the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, DC 20554, not later than November 28, 2016. Letters should set forth in detail the specific facts concerning which the writer wishes to give evidence. If the FCC believes the evidence is legally competent, material, and relevant to the issues, it will contact the person in question.

Copies of the renewal applications, any amendments thereto, and related material are on file for public inspection at 5345 Madison Avenue in Sacramento, California.

Respectfully submitted,

NO 194 PUBLIC NOTICE

By a Hearing Designation Order and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing, released on October 27, 2016, the Federal Communications Commission has designated for hearing license renewal applications filed by Entencom License, LLC seeking renewal of the license of its radio broadcast station KNDP, which operates at the frequency 107.9 MHz.

The applications of this station for a renewal of its license to operate this station in the public interest were forwarded for filing with the Federal Communications Commission on July 28, 2005 and July 30, 2013. After considering these applications, the FCC has determined that it is necessary to hold a hearing to decide the following questions:

(a) To determine whether Entencom designed and conducted a contest that was inherently dangerous;

(b) To determine whether Entencom increased the danger to the contestants in the "Hold Your Wee for a Wii" contest by changing the contest terms;

(c) To determine whether Entencom was aware of the potential dangers of the "Hold Your Wee for a Wii" contest and water intoxication;

(d) To determine whether Entencom failed to protect the contestants of the "Hold Your Wee for a Wii" contest from its potential dangers;

(e) To determine whether Entencom failed to warn the contestants of the "Hold Your Wee for a Wii" contest of the contest's potential dangers;

(f) To determine whether Entencom provided adequate first aid to the welfare of contestants of the "Hold Your Wee for a Wii" contest;

(g) To determine whether Entencom failed to properly train and exercise appropriate supervision of Station KNDP staff and the "Hold Your Wee for a Wii" contest to ensure the safety of the contestants;

(h) To determine, in light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and the totality of circumstances, whether Entencom License, LLC operated Station KNDP in the public interest during the most recent license term; and

(i) To determine, in light of the evidence adduced under the foregoing issues and the totality of circumstances, whether Entencom's applications for Renewal of License for KNDP, FCC Nos. BRN-20130730ANM and BRN-20050728AUI, should be granted.

The hearing will be held at Washington, D.C. commencing at a time to be determined on a date to be determined that shall be no later than July 28, 2017.

Members of the public who desire to give evidence concerning the foregoing issues should write to the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, DC 20554, not later than November 28, 2016. Letters should set forth in detail the specific facts concerning which the writer wishes to give evidence. If the FCC believes the evidence is highly competent, material, and relevant to the issues, it will contact the person in question.

Copies of the renewal applications, any amendments thereto, and related material are on file for public inspection at 5345 Madison Avenue in Sacramento, California, 95824, 11/2, 11/3, 11/4, 11/10/16
